ABOUT MALWANCHAL UNIVERSITY

Malwanchal University, established in 2016, offers education on a modern 65-acre campus.

It is part of Central India's largest medical education group with UGC approval and 23+ institutions.

Over 12,000 students benefit from practical learning through 50+ advanced labs and in-house job opportunities. Hostels, transport, and a strong alumni network support a well-rounded student experience.

ABOUT CONFERENCE

The International Conference on Shaping a SUSTAINABLE FUTURE DEVELOPMENT IN THE MODERN ERA focuses on balancing global growth with environmental responsibility.

It brings together researchers, policymakers, and industry leaders for knowledge exchange. The event discusses solutions to major challenges such as climate change and resource depletion. It highlights the role of innovation, including AI and renewable energy, in sustainable development. The conference also emphasizes strong policy frameworks to support long-term global progress. Topics like green chemistry, circular economy, and social equity are explored to develop practical global solutions.

AIM & OBJECTIVE OF THE CONFERENCE

The objective is to foster interdisciplinary dialogue, bridge innovation and policy, promote actionable solutions, address global challenges, empower future leaders and ensure long-term economic stability.

OUTCOMES

The initiative aims to produce strategic policy briefs, strengthen industry-academia collaboration, publish high-impact research, launch innovation pilot projects and promote global networking and knowledge exchange.
