

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE CELEBRATIONS AND EVENTS

Malwanchal University is committed to maintain national pride, cultural heritage, harmony and brotherhood. In the view of overall development of the students, in addition to academics, institutions focus on non-academic activities as well. The university celebrates national, international commemorative days and regional festival every year.

Celebration of national days:-

Republic day: - Republic Day (26th January) flag hosting is done by the chief guest and Dean IMCRC. The Dean IIDS principal INC and IDOPT and IIP participate along with the students and staff speeches were delivered patriotic songs sweet distribution is done.

Ambedkar Jayanti 14th April:-Dr. Ramgulam Razdan Pro-Vice Chancellor and Dean IMCHRC threw light on life of Dr Ambedkar posters competition are organized.

Independence Day 15th August: - Flag hosting is followed by the patriotic song and cultural events the students delivered speeches on teaching of great Indian leader and freedom fighters.

Teachers Day 15th September: - Cultural program are organized by students of constituent units gratitude and respect for their teachers.

Birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi 2nd October: - On theme of Patriotism and Gandhian philosophy posters competitions are organized speeches are delivered on ideologies of Gandhi ji by eminent speakers.

BAL Divas 14th November: - Fun activities for children's admitted in pediatric ward are organized every year to chill up kids and relieve stress sweets faculties and give are distributed painting competition is organized.

Celebration of International days:-

World cancer day 4th February: - Awareness programs are organized by the Paramedical Institute and medicine department oral cancer awareness camp are organized by IIDS

International Women's Day 8 march: - Awareness programs on gender equality posters, slogan writing and Rangoli competitions were organized by the students constituent unit and female staff of Malwanchal University.

World heart day 29th of September: - Department of medicine organized CME and workshop on cardiac diseases.

World suicide prevention day 10th September: - Dr Ramgulam Razdan professor HOD department of psychiatry and Pro Vice Chancellor organized a program for students on world suicide prevention day Distinguished guest were Shri P.N. Mishra Ex DME IMS DAVV Indore, Dr. Ashutosh Mishra professor and HOD physics department of DAVV Indore, Mrs. Alka Bhargav principal Pariksha parikshan Kendra. Speeches on suicide a burning problem doctor 'prevention of suicides' understanding value of life human mind and suicide in contest of modern and ancient knowledge were delivered.

World Mental Health Day 10th of October: - Department of psychiatry organized a program on stress management and mental health for students.

World diabetes Day 14th of November:- Department of medicine organize talk on world diabetes day to make students aware of causes risk factors and prevalence of diabetes

World AIDS Day 15th of December world: - AIDS day was observed by constituent unit's awareness regarding AIDS was given to students highlighting preventive measures.

Celebration of Regional festivals various religious festivals was celebrated on campus with full participation of students like Ganesh Chaturthi ,Diwali, Christmas ,Eid, Durga Puja Navratri, Sankranti festival etc students from all caste and religions demonstrated cultural harmony.