Outstanding performance in COVID-19

COVID Vaccination

COVID-19 Index Medical College, Hospital and Research Center (Malwanchal University) which exemplifies service and dedication in times of the pandemic. Index Medical Hospital rendered excellent treatment to Corona positive patients and this event marked the beginning of vaccination in Index Medical College premises on 25th January, 2021. 100 people were vaccinated on the first day and also was targeted on daily basis. On the auspicious occasion of this new beginning, Madhya Pradesh Water Resources Minister Shri Tulsiram Silavat and Index Medical College officials were present during this inauguration.

Praising the services of Index Medical College, Minister Shri Silavat expressed his appreciation towards the doctors. He appealed to everyone to trust the Indian COVID-19 vaccine. He endorsed respectfully the efforts of the Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi and Madhya Pradesh State Chief Minister Shri Shivraj Singh Chouhan who have constantly been trying to win over Corona virus menace.

Shri Suresh Singh Bhadoria, Chairman of Index Group (Mayank Welfare Society) said that Corona infected patients were treated at the Index Medical College with modern medical facilities and starting vaccinations here marks the advent of better and healing times. Minister Shri Silavat inspected all the arrangements in the hospital premises on this occasion and also expressed confidence in the services provided by the hospital.

Dr. GS Patel, Dean, Index Medical College and Dr. Sandhya P. Manjrekar, Medical Superintendent, Index Hospital said that it would only be a matter of opportunity to further serve society. They assured that the entire Index team will carry out this responsibility of vaccination with enthusiasm.

Director Shri RS Ranawat, Additional Director Shri RC Yadav, Deputy Director Ms. Chitra Khirwadkar were present during this event of inauguration of the vaccination programme. COVID Chief Coordinator and Vaccine Nodal Officer Dr. Deepti Singh Hada, Nodal officer Dr. Sudhir Maurya and Additional Nodal Officer Dr. Mamta Singh played an important role during the programme. A large number of doctors, students, staff members, patients and their family members also attended this inauguration programme.

Oxygen Plant

Honourable Chief Minister of Madhya Pradesh Shri Shivraj Singh Chauhan inaugurated the new oxygen plant at Index Hospital through online mode from Abhay Prashal Sports Academy premises. Honourable Chief Minister praised Index Hospital for providing excellent health care service during these difficult COVID-19 times and assured that the Government will always support Index Hospital for their good work.

The Ultra-Modern oxygen plant at Index Hospital can produce 600 jumbo oxygen cylinders per day. The inaugural ceremony was attended by Mr. Suresh Singh Bhadoria (Chairman, Index Group of Institutions, Malwanchal University), Mr. Mayankraj Singh Bhadoria (Vice-Chairman), doctors and other health workers of Index Hospital. The corona guidelines were strictly followed in the inaugural ceremony.

Index Hospital already had 11 Ton Liquid Plant, 300 Jumbo Cylinder PSA Generator and 2 Dura Liquid Tankers. Now with this new modern Oxygen Plant Index Hospital is in a better position to cater to more demand of oxygen for the health care of patients.

Capt. A.K. Jana (Oxygen Plant Incharge & Incharge of Central Research Lab of Index Medical College and Hospital) contributed immensely for the installation of this new oxygen plant. This oxygen plant provides pure oxygen up to 97.7%. It is a 100% automatic plant. Its biggest feature is that whenever there is a decrease in the purity of oxygen, it signals through a buzzer. The purity of oxygen can be easily monitored in this machinery. Whenever there is a decrease in the purity of oxygen, it can be improved immediately. This plant runs non-stop 24x7, with both the units producing 600 jumbo oxygen cylinders per day. At the same time, due to the state-of-the-art technology, its maintenance requirement is minimal.

Mr. RS Ranawat, (Director, Index Medical College and Hospital) and Mr. RC Yadav, (Additional Director) gave their extensive support in this project.

Stores Manager Mr. Manibhushan Singh, Gas Plant Technician Mr. Aamir Khan and his team worked round the clock for this project.

Rural orientation of Malwanchal University

Malwanchal university is a private university situated in village Morodhat near Khudel on National Highway 59 A, District Indore (M.P.) approximately 25 kms away from the Indore city on the border of district Dewas.

More than 60% of India's population live in rural areas where people do not have access to various facilities and have a hard time surviving and providing for a family. The area surrounding the University is no exception.

There are various aspects which are covered by Malwanchal University which concentrates in backward and impoverished areas in rural societies and in this way University is working to alleviate the problems of nearby villages.

Students admitted through National Eligibility cum Entrance Test (NEET) are mostly from nearby rural districts and are aware of rural problems and are sympathetic to the problems of rural people.

Under Malwanchal University all our following constituents contribute in helping rural people.

- Index Medical College, Hospital & Research Centre
- Index Institute of Dental Sciences
- Index Nursing College
- Department of Physiotherapy and Paramedical Sciences
- Index Institute of Pharmacy

Index Medical College, Hospital & Research Centre provides health facilities through various camps organized in rural areas where screening and primary treatment is done and for advanced cases, where intervention is required, arrangements are made for hospitalization.

Various dental camps are organized regularly in rural areas where educational camps are organized, screening and primary treatment and treatments require specialization are being arranged through vehicles to dental college for treatment.

Various community education programmes are being run in rural areas through Index Nursing College where general health assessment and education is being provided. Similarly other programmes are organized including breast feeding week, ORS week, World Yoga day, World No Tobacco day, Stress Management thereby contributing to well-being of rural health.

Department of Physiotherapy and Paramedical Sciences organize various events such as Health Education Campaign & welfare activities in various villages & schools on regular basis where health talks on health issues, on personal hygiene, diarrheal disease, ORS, open field defecation, nutrition & balance diet and mosquito born infections are being done.

Index Institute of Pharmacy organize visits to health care centres where awareness regarding diseases and their medication, precautions and knowledge about the importance of cleanliness are being provided.

The Ayushman Bharat Yojana, which has a health cover of Rs 5 lakh per family is offered in Index Medical College, Hospital & Research Centre.

Various vaccination programmes are being run in Index Medical College, Hospital & Research Centre from conventional vaccines to vaccine for COVID-19.

We encourage to get our most of the workforce from neighbouring rural areas. It is common knowledge that rural areas struggle with shortage of healthcare provider and an uneven distribution of health workers. Malwanchal University provides adequate education and training, cultural competency skills, and certificate courses to students from rural background and all these activities give a definite rural orientation to our students once they go out of the campus.
