Report on Training Program for Teaching Faculties

Ever since the advent of YouTube in 2005, it has now come a long way from being just a browsing and accessing platform to an uploading-your-content platform. Be it just the basics or advanced courses and modules, you can find anything and everything that is relevant to you. In this era of advancements, and also keeping the zoonotic infections in mind, it has now become all the more important for all the teaching faculties of pan india colleges to learn the art of creating and uploading the content on YouTube.

With COVID-19, at bay we are needed to elevate ourselves to the cause of uplifting the education scenario and start applying the basics of uploading the content on YouTube.

Keeping this in mind and using the opportunity, Index Institute of Dental Sciences, Malwanchal University, organized a learning programme for its teaching faculties on Zoom meeting platform, on the topic "All about YouTube and uplbading the E-content" by Dr Rolly S. Aggarwal, Professor & Head, Department of Conservative Dentistry & Endodontics, IIDS on 6th July 2020.

The programme started with introduction speech, by Dr Satish Karandikar, Dean, IIDS. Later, following objectives were kept by the speaker before the start of the programme:

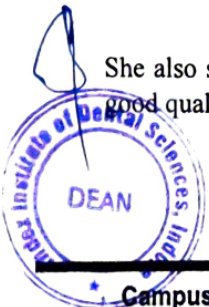

1. Removing the hesitation of presenting online
2. Ethical networking
3. Data analytics
4. Multimedia services and software learning

With the above objectives in mind, the speaker, Dr Rolly S. Aggarwal, explained to the listeners the importance of content creation and channelizing one's energy in right direction. She stressed upon the ethics part of uploading that put focus on plagiarism and original content creation.

She also called upon people not to confuse between originality and violent media, as such channels gets completely blacklisted from the YouTube community. By violent media, she meant to awaken everyone about the picturization of any kind of hatred speeches, communal speeches, unscrupulous document presentation etc.

The speaker, also, pointed out the monetary benefits of uploading the content, that one can start generating after reaching a certain number of views and likes on the video being uploaded.

She also stressed upon the various softwares and multimedia pages that can be used to create a good quality content before uploading it.
