INDEX MEDICAL COLLEGE

1st year student batch 2023-24 are participating in skit of ram leela.

This skits portray various episodes from the epic RAMAYANA, aiming to educate, entertain, and instill moral values in the audience.

This year group of first year students participated actively in the ram leela skits, showcasing their talent, enthusiasm and dedication.

Objectives:

1. Encourage cultural engagement among first-year students.
2. Develop teamwork, confidence, and communication skills.
3. Promote understanding and appreciation of Indian mythology and traditions.

Participation overview:

A total 16 first year student from various disciplines volunteered to be the part of the RAM LEELA skits. The participation was divided in various roles including;

Lead characters: Lord Rama, Sita, Lakshmana, Ravana, Hunuman, and other important characters.

Supporting Roles: various army personnel, sages, and divin beings.

Time Management: Balancing academic schedules with rehearsal timings was initially challenging for first-year students.

- Stage Fright: Some participants experienced nervousness due to performing in front of a large audience, but peer support and guidance helped them overcome it.

Successes:

Enthusiastic participation: despite the challenges, the students displayed tremendous enthusiasm, with everyone contributing to the success of the event.

Team spirit: the students worked well together, offering support to each other during rehearsals and the actual performance.

Improved performance skills: many students showed significant improvement in their acting skills, public speaking, and confidence, especially those participating for the first time.

Outcome:

The performance of the Ram Leela skits was a resounding success. The first-year students efforts were met with praise from faculty, senior students, and the audience.

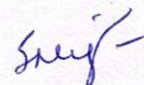

The skits successfully conveyed the moral lessons from the Ramayana while also highlighting the students creative expressions.

Conclusion:

The participation of first-year students in the Ram Leela skits was a resounding success, demonstrating their enthusiasm, talent, and commitment. The event not only celebrated Indian cultural heritage but also provided an enriching platform for students to grow and connect. Their contributions set a promising tone for future events
